Open Share:

- Laurel: In the past we always paid the storage 6 months at a time.
- Laurel: Washington County Jail contacted me and the chaplain is wanting to bring in meetings. I'll give the info to Crystal.
- Henry W.: The Coffee Pot Meeting of NA meets Fridays at 5:30 PM and Mondays at 7 PM. We have some literature needs and will be asking members with a clear NA message to come speak.
- Debbie: I'm putting forth a motion today to pay the storage for 2 months and will be discussing with the Activities committee if we want to use BRU funds to pay any of it moving forward.
- Ken: Second Chance group at Returning Home needs some male and female support. The 2pm meeting on Friday is smaller and has more women attend.
- Alicia: Asked for permission to add The Coffee Pot meeting of NA to the website and meeting list.
- Crystal: Washington County Jail and Benton County Jail would both need enough people with clean time to volunteer.
- Scott H.: Why is there nothing written in our guidelines about a point of accountability? We have an Area storage, but Activities has the key.
- Brenda: Benton County has said they want our committee to establish requirements for our own volunteers. Also, the men and women are housed separately so we would need both men and women to go in there.
- Dyanne: What's in storage?
- Debbie: Decorations, BRU stuff, leftovers from other activities, archives, and possibly more.

NWA AREA OF NARCOTICS ANONYMOUS MINUTES

JUNE 8, 2019

- Ken: I've been through Washington County with Chuck and Scott before and they only do the orientation once a year and they don't mix the different pods there.
- Scott: In the past Washington County required 2 years clean and anyone new had to be accompanied by someone who had been going in already at least 2 times.
- Brenda: Washington County Jail has changed chaplains and policies could have also changed.
- Dyanne: If Crystal is currently having issues with having enough volunteers to the 2 facilities we are already going into, should we be even talking about expanding our H&I if we are already spread so thin?
- Brenda: I have willingness for ACC on Mondays and have finished by orientation.
- Crystal: Sarah coordinates for ACC, please contact her to schedule going in there.

New Business:

- The Coffee Pot Meeting of NA is welcomed to the NWA Area.
