November 14, 2020 - ASC meeting

Marc S.

Not much to report as no meeting has been held yet. I did discuss with some BRU volunteers about starting to meet regularly starting in December. Our first meeting will be announced on the website, social media and via email to all ASC members. We will likely hold nominations for positions on the BRU campout so if anyone is interested please try to attend that meeting.

To keep things more transparent and create continuity we hope to have a formal committee so that each member can use the process for preparing for the campout and maybe help in developing either guidelines and/or procedures.

YILS,

Marc S.

RCM Report November 2020

We hosted the RSC at the LifeSource building in Fayetteville November 7th, 2020. Service committee began at 10:00am and concluded in the afternoon. Area provided breakfast and snacks. Final Frontier provided lunch and a few miscellaneous items. The Region provided a check for hosting the region which was turned over to LifeSource for use of the building all day and use of their wi-fi and audio/visual equipment. After the service committee many members of the region stuck around and ate wings and watched football and fellowshiped until the evening event. Area provided a catered BBQ dinner and instead of having a panel of speakers (because all but one speaker cancelled), we had a birthday night and cleantime countdown. The event was well-attended and there was definitely as spirit of unity and love that evening. A few members provided an absolutely scrumptious cake for birthday night that was served while the medallion celebrations continued. There were 138 years of cleantime medallions picked up. Thank you to all who attended, participated, and were of service.

Attached to my report are receipts from Sam's Club and from Penguin Ed's BBQ totaling $518.69 which accounts for the $500 expense check from Area to host the RSC and the Saturday night event. Also attached is a receipt for $634.90 accounting for the NWA Area donations from May through October check #'s 1409, 1410, 1411, 1412, 1413 & 1416.
