- Crystal: how do we handle na racks that don't have only NA literature in them?
- Laurel: by contacting the facility directly
- Jack: Do we know if the racks are ours and if we own it. If they own it then isn't it an outside issue?
- Hannah: where is the unity between us and other programs that are our predecessors?

NWA AREA OF NARCOTICS ANONYMOUS - AREA SERVICE COMMITTEE

- Alicia: I have already talked to one facility about it, but don't know if the small rack that has other literature in it was purchased by us. If not we can ask them to at least cover up the NA logo so there is no confusion or endorsement.

Our Traditions and Service

You probably hear in meetings that “our traditions are not negotiable.” While they are not negotiable, our traditions are certainly open to interpretation. If you’ve been involved in any NA service for any period of time, you may have witnessed a heated discussion where one member accuses another of “violating” or “breaking” our traditions, and the other may just as adamantly deny this. We all have personal opinions about how to apply the traditions in service, but the best way to ensure we remain in harmony with our guiding principles is through the process of group conscience. Here are some topics for groups and committees to consider when discussing our Twelve Traditions as they relate to public relations service.

Chapter 2 of the Public Relations Handbook and the associated resource material contain more in-depth discussions of the Twelve Traditions as they relate to public relations service. It Works: How and Why is also a great resource for discussing our traditions. We encourage your committee to explore these matters as a group and we encourage open discussion to determine what is in harmony with our guiding principles.

“Can We Even Do Public Relations?”

Our Eleventh Tradition states that “our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion,” so it seems pretty clear that NA is meant to have a public relations policy. Public relations is simply the building and maintaining of relationships. With this action in our relationships, we help to ensure that NA is seen as attractive. We want NA to be known and respected in the community so that potential members can find us. We don’t engage in promotion in the course of our PR work.

“What Is Promotion?”

In It Works: How and Why, promotion is described as “fanfare, overblown claims, [and] celebrity endorsements.” In PR service, all we are charged with doing is informing the public that we are a credible program of recovery. We must be visible in order to be attractive. The still-suffering addict cannot hear our message if they don’t know where to find us.

Self-Support and Public Service Announcements

Public service announcements can be an opportunity for us to build a cooperative relationship with members of the public in our community. This offering of services to charitable organizations is a way that public organizations and businesses enter into cooperative relationships within the community. By combining our efforts with these organizations and taking a team approach, we demonstrate our ability to cooperate. We are not attaching ourselves or affiliating ourselves with these organizations. Rather, we can enter these relationships based on the spirit of cooperation.

“Are We Violating Our Anonymity with Public Relations?”

Remember that our Eleventh Tradition talks about anonymity in mass media—press, radio, and films (and, by extension, the Internet). Our Twelfth Tradition discusses anonymity as it pertains to placing “principles before personalities”—within NA, we are all equals. Almost every type of service requires us to interact with members of the public.

Self-support means more than just carrying our own financial weight—it means that we fulfill our responsibility to provide information about our program and engage in meaningful relationships with others who have similar goals.

PR Handbook, Chapter 2

“Doesn’t Self-Support Mean We Can’t Accept Any Help from Anyone Outside NA?”

Our Seventh Tradition ensures NA’s independence. We don’t solicit money from the public; this keeps our service efforts and our message free from outside influences. We gratefully accept charitable rates for meeting spaces or public service announcements that would be available to any not-for-profit organization. If NA is not being singled out for special treatment, our self-support is not compromised.

From the Editor

We would like to welcome all of you to the NA World Services newsletter, Reaching Out. We hope that the contents of this newsletter will assist you in your recovery or H&I efforts. There are three sections to Reaching Out. The first section, "From the Inside," is filled with letters from incarcerated addicts, sharing their experience, strength, and hope as they find and maintain recovery from addiction through NA.

The second section, "From the Outside," is an opportunity for Hospitals & Institutions subcommittees to offer their experiences obtained through carrying the NA message of recovery to addicts who are unable to attend regular meetings. You may also find personal experience from those members who heard the NA message on the inside and are now living and enjoying life on the outside.

The third and newest section, "Transitioning from the Inside to the Outside," features members sharing about successfully transitioning from treatment, a hospital, or an institution to living on the outside. We encourage submissions for Reaching Out from members and H&I subcommittees. Please consider that we are more likely to publish articles that focus on how NA has helped an individual to recover while incarcerated rather than those that concentrate on the horrors of drug use. Send all submissions to Reaching Out; NAW5, PO Box 9999; Van Nuys, CA 91409-9999; USA, or to fsmail@na.org.

GET INVOLVED AND HELP US CARRY OUT OUR FELLOWSHIP'S PRIMARY PURPOSE!! *

Our planned publication deadlines are as follows:

Issue	Deadline
April 2023	15 January 2023
July 2023	15 April 2023
October 2023	15 July 2023

And finally, did you know that electronic subscriptions to Reaching Out are free? New issues will be emailed to you four times a year. To sign up, visit www.na.org/reachingout.

Re: inmate writing

"When at the end of the road we find that we can no longer function as a human being, either with or without drugs, we all face the same dilemma. What is there left to do? There seems to be this alternative: either go on as best we can to the bitter ends—jails, institutions, or death—or find a new way to live. In years gone by, very few addicts ever had this last choice. Those who are addicted today are more fortunate. For the first time in man's entire history, a simple way has been proving itself in the lives of many addicts. It is available to us all. This is a simple spiritual—not religious—program, known as Narcotics Anonymous."
